Introduction

For 100 years the Toledo Museum of Art has been gracing our community with exhibitions of wonderful art. For 83 years, they have showcased works created by our area artists. We are honored to have the opportunity to welcome you to the 83rd annual Toledo Area Artists Exhibition. The extraordinary works selected for this year's May Show reflect the boundless forms of expression for our area artists. This collaborative effort between the Toledo Museum of Art and the Toledo Federation of Art Societies presents to you a show of great diversity.

We wish to express our gratitude to the trustees and delegates of the Toledo Federation of Art Societies and to the various members of each committee who have devoted much time and effort in planning this exhibition. Additional thanks to the friends and donors who have generously supported us and, of course, to the artists themselves whose creative efforts make this exhibition possible.

There are many and exciting things happening at the Museum this year and it's staff has been very busy. A special debt of gratitude is owed to Roger Berkowitz, director of the Toledo Museum of Art, Claude Fixler, installation coordinator, and the countless individuals in each department for their assistance in the planning and installation of the exhibition. The Federation and the artists of our community are extremely appreciative.

We are honored to have had nationally known, distinguished, and highly qualified professional jurors select the 100 works in celebration of the Museum's centennial anniversary. Bill Hunt, ceramic artist and former editor of Ceramics Monthly, and Britta Konau, curator of contemporary and modern art at the National Museum of Women in the Arts in Washington, D.C., worked diligently to assemble 100 works from 733 entries. They were impressed by the excellent quality of creative work found within our region and we hope that, like the jurors, you will also be captivated and intrigued by this year's exhibition.
